

2018 Southern AZ Youth in Harmony Festival Clinicians

Dan Ryan, Sr.

Boys' Clinician

After stumbling upon the South Cook Chapter in the fall of 1976 in the Chicago suburb of Tinley Park. Dan is celebrating his 40th year as a barbershopper. He has enjoyed singing in "The Chefs," "Hometown Favorites," and "Daily Favorites" quartets and directing choruses in Sweet Adelines, Harmony Incorporated, and S.P.E.B.S.Q.S.A.

After moving to Phoenix in 1983, Dan became the assistant director of the Phoenicians barbershop chorus and also directed the Scottsdale Copperstatesmen Chorus and the Paradise Valley Chorus, while singing in the "After Hours," "Phoenix Rising," and "Seems Like Old Times," quartets. He currently sings in the "Intonation" quartet.

After 7 years teaching Middle School Band in the Isaac School District, Dan now teaches General Music at Moya Elementary in Phoenix. He is also celebrating 15 years at Heritage Presbyterian Church in Glendale, AZ as Director of Music, teaching choir, praise team, handbells, and children's choir.

This is Dan's second time serving as a clinician for the Southern AZ Youth in Harmony Festival.

Anna-Lisa Glad

Girls' Clinician

Anna-Lisa Glad is a member of the Sweet Adelines International Faculty. She is also the choreographer for the Mountain Jubilee Chorus in Salt Lake City, Utah.

She has competed in barbershop quartets at the International level as both a tenor and a baritone. She is now giving lead a try in her new quartet, Se Quel.

She is a former high school choir director and has done youth festivals in Utah and New Mexico, and several times at the Southern AZ Youth in Harmony Festival in Tucson. She is thrilled to spend the day with the fine young women of Arizona!
